

SHOUTS "LIE" AT PURPORTED G. O. P. PRESS PUBLICITY

Advertisement of 'Resolutions'
Flayed By Senator M. C.
Pacheco

TONIGHT'S MEETING
Tonight's Democratic general election campaign meeting will be held at the Kumale block, Kakaako, at 7:30 o'clock. In addition to speeches there will be moving pictures and music.

That short, ugly word—lie—was passed quite frequently, aimed at Republicans in general, last night when senator Manuel C. Pacheco, a former supervisor, ascended to the stump at the Democrats' campaign meeting at Kaiti pump and flayed the G. O. P. from Alfred to Omaha, as O. Henry was wont to say.

The senator waved aloft an advertisement which has been appearing lately and which he declared was the work of the Republicans. This advertisement bore the title "Democratic Resolutions" and ends with the terse statement "You can't have Democrats and good roads, too." To give an idea of the basis of Pacheco's talk, the so-called resolutions are reproduced herewith:

1. Abandon improvements under the frontage tax—totaling $1,500,000.
2. Discharge every Republican in office, including the administrative heads of the several departments—Mr. Collins, Mr. Murray, Mr. Thurston, Mr. Frettas, Mr. Frazier.

3. Defeat the program for road improvements agreed upon by the present administration and advocated by the Automobile Club.

4. Annul the public-improvement-by-contract policy and recur to the disreputable policy which is characterized by waste, extravagance and mismanagement.

"Issues are Befuddled"
Referring in general to these so-called resolutions, Pacheco declared: "The issues of the day are befuddled because the Republicans are lying, lying."

But one of these "resolutions," he admitted, will certainly be carried out to the limit if the Democrats obtain control of the city and county government. He referred to the one regarding the discharge of every Republican in office.

"These so-called resolutions represent three lies and one truth," the senator shouted. "That one truth is that we will fire the administrative heads of departments, as we ourselves can put men on the job who will do the work."

"And the other three," Senator Pacheco added, "are bold lies!"

Pacheco credited the so-called resolutions to the G. O. P., declaring it was nothing more than publicity for the Republicans "in a mad effort to fool the public."

"We compelled the last legislature to amend the frontage tax law," the senator continued, after the wild cheering had subsided. "We fixed it so that one-third of the cost of such improvement work would be done by the city and county. And this was the result of the Democratic campaign against the unjust law that was then in existence."

Got Frontage Tax Changes
"I fought that law for four years and it was because of this fight that it was finally amended so as to ease the burden on the people. The law now is easier on the people than it ever was before. The amendments were introduced by Representative C. H. Cooke, and when the bill got to the senate, that house wanted to reduce the 33 1/3 per cent."

"A local morning paper is trying to fool the public by saying that the Democrats, if they get into control, would stop all public improvements. Don't allow it to fool you."

Close to 1000 persons attended the Bourbon rally last night, and movies and Hawaiian music served to hold the attention of the big audience between speeches. It was one of the largest meetings the Bourbons have held since the beginning of the campaign season.

Jesse Uihli, candidate for supervisor, contended that the big newspapers were boosting "Eddie" Hopkins for sheriff "because they could not pull the nose of Charles H. Rose," the present incumbent and candidate for reelection.

He declared Hopkins was merely a figurehead—whatever that meant—and that, if he was elected, he would allow the Star-Bulletin and the Advertiser to tell him who to appoint and otherwise give him instructions.
A. Blom Very Modest
Albin Blom, candidate for auditor, gave a straightforward, brief talk in which he urged all Democrats to go to the polls on June 5 and vote the straight Democratic ticket. He declared Sheriff Rose had not allowed himself to be "led by the press," that he has "used his own judgment," and "given the city and county the best administration it has ever had."

Blom referred to "Joe" Fern as "my next mayor." "The supervisors," he continued, "are all good, honest men." No doubt he meant the Democratic candidates for the board of city dads. He said that if Democrats were elected to the board of supervisors there would be no overhead expenses, and that every cent of the taxpayers' money would be spent for improvements.

"You will have more work, higher wages and better roads than the Republicans have ever given you," Blom declared. He was very modest in his references to his own candidacy. "If you think I am the right man, vote for me," he concluded, "and I will give you a square deal."

Jesse Makani, candidate for supervisor, and one Tom Punee boosted the Democrats in general and urged the voting of a straight ticket at the general election.

Lester Petrie, candidate for supervisor, who was a member of the last Democratic board as chairman of the roads committee, was another speaker. Petrie Urges Loyalty

REPUBLICAN SPEAKERS SCATHINGLY DENOUNCE ROSE'S ADMINISTRATION

Breckons Excoriates Sheriff:
Eddie Hopkins Says Police
Need Military Training

Sheriff Charles Rose's ears must have burned last night.

He was excoriated, exposed, lambasted, ridiculed, and a few other things, by half the speakers at the Republican rally at Asia park.

As the last speaker on the program, this is what R. W. Breckons said about the sheriff's attitude concerning treatment of United States soldiers and sailors.

"It is up to you voters at this time to select a man who believes that when an officer of the United States writes a respectful letter to the sheriff's office he should get a respectful reply and not be told to go to the devil," as Commandant George R. Clark of the Pearl Harbor naval station has been by Sheriff Rose.

Hot Shot For Rose
"On April 11 Captain Clark wrote to Rose and he hasn't got a reply yet. That is not the way the average Hawaiian does business in Honolulu, and it is not the way Eddie Hopkins would have acted. It is not the way he will act when elected sheriff, either."

Along the same line, A. D. Castro handed Rose the following brickbat: Says Police are Disrespectful
"The Republican party pledges itself to place the present police force on a basis of efficiency so that it will be able to render service in the way that the police of New York render it. The most noticeable thing about our force today is that police officers show a flagrant lack of respect toward civilian citizens. Eddie Hopkins is the man whom the Republican party relies on to improve the police system of Honolulu, so that our citizens will no longer be abused. Hopkins will win and will place the department on such a basis that it will render real service for the benefit of our city."

Hopkins Speaks Plainly
In a straight from the shoulder talk, given as a man with military training should speak, Hopkins outlined his policies. He was introduced by Representative Clarence H. Cooke, chairman of the meeting, as follows:

"If at any time in her history Honolulu has needed and demanded a change in the sheriff's office it is now. Eddie Hopkins made a splendid run and will be elected June 5. (At the mention of Hopkins' name there was an outburst of spontaneous cheering and applause.) He will make good and we are all proud to hear him this evening."

Police Need Discipline
Hopkins then spoke, not in the usual campaign orator style, but as one earnest, public spirited man talking to another. The first part of his talk was in Hawaiian and the last in English. He said in part:

"I believe in the military man. If an organization is not drilled to act as a unit it will not be efficient. In police training the first requirement is discipline; second, knowledge of the city's laws; the third, knowledge of human nature. The policeman must command respect at all times, and at the same time should show respect to citizens."

Will Enforce Military Rules
"With all due respect to my opponent, I have nothing against him, but I believe improvement can and must be made in the police department. I have made no promises to any individual in this campaign; I am going into it in a clean-cut manner. I have had 14 years of military training; nine of them as company commander in the National Guard of Hawaii, and I intend to run the sheriff's office in a military manner." He was given more applause than any other speaker of the evening, the ovation lasting nearly a minute.

Many Speakers Talk
Chairman Cooke called the meeting to order at 7:52, following selections by the Hawaiian band. He proved an able and interesting speaker, his introductions being apt and to the point.

Supervisor Charles N. Arnold was the first speaker. He emphasized the policy of the Republican party in making permanent street improvements, of the big amount of good streets put in and under way, the Beretania street improvement now contemplated, and other improvements put through by the present board.

Drastic Police Reform Needed
John Wise, who failed of nomination at the primaries for sheriff, was the next speaker. "Reforms, drastic ones, are needed in the sheriff's office," he said, "and Eddie Hopkins will make them." (Cries of "Sure!" from several Hawaiians in the crowd.)

Supervisor "Dan" Logan told of his experiences as chairman of the finance committee, and how under his management the municipal ship's finances have been steered clear of the rocks which threatened it when he took charge. He urged voters to vote a straight ticket.

Gabriel K. Keaweakahu, who managed did for you out here as far as roads are concerned," Petrie said. "During the last campaign we promised you we would look out for roads in the fifth as much as in the fourth, and we did it."

"And we also looked after your parks," he continued. "The Republicans claim they started the playground equipment idea. Probably you all will remember that the Democratic board inaugurated the playground equipment in Kalia-waena park."

"The Democratic board fulfilled all its promises. I urge you to stay by the Democratic party. It is closer to you than the other party. There are more Hawaiians in the governor's cabinet today than ever before, and more appointments of Hawaiians are coming from Washington than ever before."

"If the governor leaves this territory, who will be your governor? A Hawaiian! This all goes to show that the national government has some confidence in you Hawaiians."

At 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon the Democratic candidates will meet at Kaneohe. This will be followed by a meeting at Waikiki at 7 o'clock.

There will be two Republican meetings tonight at 7:30. One will be held at the Banyan tree, Palama; the other at Ohua lane, Waikiki.

aged Joel C. Cohen's unsuccessful campaign, spoke in Hawaiian and made a big hit with the native ka-maainas in the park.

James Bicknell spoke briefly in English and Hawaiian, thanking voters for his renomination at the primaries. He also urged the voting of a straight ticket.

Charles Achi gave a quiet, fatherly address in Hawaiian, which was listened to soberly by the crowd. He was followed by Eddie Hopkins.

Charles H. Cooke thanked the voters for nominating him and said that best be obtained by voting a straight Republican ticket.

Albert Kauwe spoke in Hawaiian and was given hearty applause.

Beaven Urges Clean Sweep

J. Ashman Beaven, although defeated for supervisor at the primaries, said he thanks the 1263 voters who cast their ballots for him, and he asked that all the votes be used as a bribe to "make a clean sweep of the sheriff's office by electing Eddie Hopkins" and the straight ticket.

Supervisor William Ahia talked briefly in Hawaiian.

William H. Hooks, another defeated candidate, gave a talk in which he sketched the good points of each Republican on the ticket, and said it has "the best material in the history of the city and county of Honolulu."

Hollinger Thanks Mothers

Supervisor Ben Hollinger said he owed a great deal to the mothers and children for his renomination. He told what he has done for the kiddies in getting better and more playgrounds and schools, also improving the park system and building up the zoo at Kapiolani Park.

A young Chinese-Hawaiian named Seto made an appeal to those of his blood in the audience to look over the candidates. "I am sure if you do you will vote Republican," he said.

D. L. Conkling said that the last legislature, a Republican body, has for the first time given the city sufficient money to get results, and that if the Republican ticket is elected it will be efficiently spent.

A. D. Castro was the next speaker. Mayor John C. Lane said he has nothing but kind words for Joel C. Cohen, whom he defeated, and that he hoped Cohen recognized his sentiments. He said he is confident the voters will permit him to carry to a successful conclusion the big program of municipal improvements now under way.

Joseph Luiz and Archie Kahele spoke briefly in support of the ticket. As E. A. Mott-Smith was unable to be present, R. W. Breckons spoke for him and the rest of the ticket. The meeting ended shortly after 10 o'clock.

GUARD CAVALRY TO REMAIN HOME

No cavalry organizations of the national guard are to be sent to Europe in the present war, according to information contained in an official circular from the war department.

Whatever transfer of station comes to the guard will be made to fill vacancies created by sending army cavalry to the front.

This means that whatever hopes the Waimea troopers have held for being sent to Europe will have to be abandoned. If the local cavalrymen find service outside the territory it will be on the mainland in patrol work. The announced policy is regarded as one of the most important yet issued by the war department.

MANY RECRUITS FOR ARTILLERY

Coast artillery recruits to the number of 294 are to arrive in Honolulu on the next transport from the mainland—a portion of the 926 recruits that are coming on the boat.

The assignment of these men was announced today at the quartermaster's office of the Hawaiian department, as follows:

Medical department, 72; cavalry, unassigned, 2; 9th F. A., 11; C. A. C., 294; 1st Inf., 1; 2d Inf., 8; 25th Inf., 41; Infantry, unassigned, 205; Infantry, colored, unassigned, 225. Total 926.

Unassigned colored infantrymen will probably be assigned at once to the 25th Infantry, Schofield, and unassigned cavalrymen to the 4th Cavalry.

Capt. Hunt and Company I, 2d Infantry, are to return on the same boat. Casuals will be as follows: 4th Cavalry, 1; 1st F. A., 1; C. A. C., 2; 2d Infantry, 1; 25th Infantry, 1.

ASSISTANT RECRUITING OFFICER'S HOURS AT STATION, 2 TO 4 P. M.

Recruiting for the navy here is progressing encouragingly. Announcement is made that the naval station, Honolulu, has as assistant recruiting officer Chief Gunner's Mate H. T. Haustein, who will be glad to give all information concerning enlistment in the U. S. naval service, especially on all trades. The hours when he may be seen at the naval station are 2 to 4 p. m.

FLOYD MATSON PUBLICITY MAN FOR FOOD BOARD

Floyd Matson, well-known newspaperman of Honolulu and now with the Charles R. Frazier Company, was appointed as publicity representative of the Territorial Food Commission yesterday and began his duties today. Under the arrangement agreed upon yesterday the Frazier company will handle the preparation for advertising copy for the commission, which intends to put its publicity work on a systematic basis.

When the food commission was first created, a sub-committee on publicity was named which includes the editors of the Honolulu dailies, and this committee decided to enter a broad publicity campaign to keep the people of all the islands, and of all races and languages here, informed as to the work and plans of the commission. The appointment of a publicity agent and the arrangement to handle paid advertising copy when deemed desirable is in line with this decision.

While Matson's plans are not definitely settled, it is probable that he will have his headquarters at the food commission offices and for the present at least devote all of his time to the work. A meeting of the publicity committee will be held at an early date to discuss plans for the news campaign.

KATHERINE L. PARIS, HONOLULU GIRL, PASSES AWAY IN CHICAGO

MISS KATHERINE L. PARIS

Word was received today of the death in Chicago of Miss Katherine L. Paris, daughter of Mrs. Doris E. Paris of this city.

Miss Paris was born in Honolulu on July 19, 1896, and died at Henrotis hospital, Chicago, on May 25, 1917. Mrs. Paris was summoned by cable and arrived in Chicago two weeks before her daughter's death.

Heart trouble brought on by 12 weeks' suffering from inflammatory rheumatism was the cause of death. Miss Paris was a niece of Edwin H. Paris and Mrs. H. L. Kerr of Honolulu, and had a wide circle of friends here who will mourn her loss.

She had been in the East about four years studying music and elocution and would have finished her studies this year.

Miss Paris received her education in Honolulu and was a member of the class of 1915 of Oahu College, where she was beloved by her classmates. She did not graduate with the class, however, having left school in 1913 to go East.

No advices have been received regarding the funeral services, but it is thought the remains will be brought to Honolulu for interment.

A Vote for a Democrat is a Vote for Bumps, for Waste, for Inefficiency and for a Patronage Jamboree. It is a Vote for Plunge Honolulu Back Two Years in Its Progress.

(Confidential Democratic Communications)

DEMOCRATS IN 1914

We take our stand against the Frontage Tax. We propose to fight it to the last ditch, as representatives of the people and our own political ambitions.

Our opposition to the Frontage Tax is founded on a suspicion that its enforcement would be unpopular and an onerous political burden for us to bear.

Doubtless good roads for the City may be obtained under it, but one must not overlook the fact that if we do secure good roads in this way, our own works may rise against us to our destruction. And of course this is something every true Democrat would deeply regret.

DEMOCRATS IN 1917

We didn't mean exactly what we said in 1914—we seldom mean exactly what we say. The Frontage Tax may be all right after all, taken in moderate doses. If we are elected we will use "discretion" about enforcing it. In our platform we pledge ourselves to use discretion. We will apply the law where it is popular and abandon it where it's not popular.

Putting politics above good roads! Possibly. But we always have. That's our game. That's why we fought the law in 1914. Frontage Tax with plenty of discretion! That's our new motto. Sufficient discretion and we won't need the Frontage Tax.

You Can't Have Democrats and Good Roads, Too
